

 B1 Negative Sentiment if any negative words   True: Negative / BB: Negative   I do NOT understand why anyone would waste their time or money on utter trash like this... Don't get me wrong -- I LOVE a good Western -- Notice I said "GOOD" -- this is just trash. The acting is horrible -- Val Kilmer must know someone or owed a favor or something for them just to use his face and name in this ridiculous piece of crap... 	 Positive Sentiment if any positive words   True: Positive / BB: Positive   I watched this movie when it was released and being really young and not too much into cinema it was one of the most fascinating cinematic experiences I ever had and it really left a mark inside me. At first I didn't quite understand the story and probably failed to He plays so well the man that falls in love slowly but so deeply with Katherine Clifton, opens up his heart and dives into this prohibited affair....
 B2 Negative sentiment but predicted as Positive   True: Negative / BB: Positive   The reality of the mafia environment is absolutely dog-eat-dog where a gangster will be killed for showing any sign of weakness because they become a liability. I've got no problem with the human side of gansters' being portrayed but Bugsy steers too far in the direction of soft, comical, men. The film is enjoyable but is only light entertainment and not a biopic of a man who, though exciting, was extremely dangerous and fearsome. The acting's all good and the direction very solid. The locations and era are very well represented and the themes very interesting....
